

On-Campus Cafes

Restaurant	Description	Hours	Location	Distance from Royce Hall
Kerchoff  Coffeehouse	UCLA's first coffee house, opened in 1976, is still a favorite student gathering-place. The leaded glass windows, wood-top tables, and copper counter-front are just some of the details that give the Coffee House its warmth and charm.	Fri: 7AM-7PM Sat: 8AM-6PM Sun: 8AM-11Pm	Kerchoff Hall, 2nd Floor	0.2 Miles
Music Café	Cozy café lined with windows located in the Ostin Music Center. Featuring views of the famous inverted fountain of much UCLA folklore, this café offers a nice, open space to get some work done.	Fri: 7AM-5PM Sat/Sun: Closed	Ostin Music Center, 1st Floor	0.2 Miles
Café 451	Named after Ray Bradbury's famous novel, "Fahrenheit 451," Cafe 451 is nestled in Young Research Library where Bradbury wrote his famous novel. Conveniently located next to the extensive study space of Young Research Library, this café offers a cozy place to study or to refuel with a quick bite.	Fri: 7:30AM-4:30PM Sat: 9:30AM-4:30PM Sun: 1:30PM-9:30PM	Young Research Library	0.2 Miles
Untitled	Untitled, is located in the lobby level of Broad Arts Center to serve the Design & Media Arts community in North Campus. This space features clean lines and minimal design.	Fri: 7AM-6PM Sat/Sun: Closed	Broad Arts Center	0.3 Miles
Café Synapse	This elegant little restaurant is designed as a place for the researchers and doctors of the Gonda Center and MacDonald Laboratories to connect with each other. A scientific diagram of a synapse inspired the disc-and-line motif that appears in the logo and in the interior decor.	Fri: 7AM-5PM Sat/Sun: Closed	Gonda Research Center	0.5 Miles